METHOD FOR THE ELABORATION AND ORAL DEFENCE OF A FL SYLLABUS AND DIDACTIC UNITS. STATE EXAMS. PRIMARY EDUCATION

1. INTRODUCTION.

2. INITIAL APPROACH, AN OVERALL VIEW.

3. UNDERSTANDING A PROGRAMMING DESIGN.

3.1 How the story begins.

3.2 Programming design.

3.3 Syllabus components.

3.3.1 Introduction.

3.3.2 Objectives.

3.3.3 Content.

3.3.4 Evaluation criteria and learning standards.

3.4 Key Competences.

3.4.1 A brief introduction.

3.4. 2Description of the KC in the Spanish educational system.

3.4. 3Programming strategy. Example.

3.5 Methodology.

3.5.1 General methodological strategies.

3.5.2 Specific methodological strategies for the teaching of English as a FL.

3.5.3 Resources in the digital era.

3.5.4 Space layout, time organisation and students´ grouping.

3.5.5 Contribution to the school plans. Main examples: tutorial action plan and reading plan.

3.5.6 Cross-curricular connections.

3.5.7 Extra-curricular activities.

3.5.8 Parental involvement and classroom management.

3.5.9 Transversal elements.

3.6 Attention to diversity.

3.7 Evaluation.

3.7.1 Introduction.

3.7.2 Stages of evaluation.

3.7.3 Practical hints to put into motion evaluation of competence-based learning in our programming.

3.8 Designing units.

3.8.1 Definition and components.

3.8.2 Sequencing content and methodological perspective.

3.8.3 Getting down to business.

4. FL PROGRAMMING MODELS.

4.1 Before reading the model.

4.2 Road to your Post hints for programming design.

4.3 FL Programming model. Grade 4. Primary Education.

Index

1. Introduction.

2. Objectives.

3. Basic curricular elements: contents, evaluation criteria and learning standards.

4. Key competences.

4.1 Contribution from the FL area.

4.2 Competence profile of the area.

5. Methodology.
5.1 Methodological principles and strategies.
5.2 Groupings, space and time.
5.3 Resources and digital tools.
5.4 Transversal elements.
5.5 Cross curricular links.
5.6 Extra-curricular activities.
5.7 Contribution to the school plans.
5.7.1 The reading plan.
5.7.2 The tutorial action plan (TAP).
6. Specific Needs of Educational Support.
7. Evaluation of the teaching and learning process.
8. Competency Units:
8.1 Unit 1: “Who are you?”
8.2 Unit 2: “Shall we talk?”
8.3 Unit 3: “More about us”.
8.4 Unit 4: “Got Talent!”
8.5 Unit 5: MasterChef”.
8.6 Unit 6: “Would you visit us?”
8.7 Unit 7: “English Cultural Week”.
8.8 Unit 8: “Puppets show”.
8.9 Unit 9: “Planning the future”.
8.10 Unit 10: “The project highlights”.
9. Bibliography.

5. ORAL PRESENTATION: PROGRAMMING AND COMPETENCY UNITS.
5.1 Some initial considerations.
5.2 An effective oral presentation.
5.3 FL programming defence. Script model.
5.4 Unit presentation. Script model. (Unit 8: Puppets show).

6. APPS AND WEBS.
6.1 How would you integrate all these tools in your FL class?
6.2 Apps.
6.3 Webs.

7. ACRONYMS AND ABBREVIATIONS.

8. CONCLUDING REMARKS.

9. BIBLIOGRAPHY.